.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, order or direction, more particularly a Writ in the nature of mandamus, declaring the action of the Respondents in not granting the affiliation to the B. Ed college for Womens and not allotting the students on a par with the other similarly situated colleges, urn by the petitioner society inspite of complying with all the conditions stipulated and after approval of the staffing pattern as being illegal, arbitrary and vioaltive of principles of Promissory estoppel, besides being voilative of Articles 14, 16 and 19 of the Constitution of India and consequently direct the respondents 1 and 2 to grant the affiliation to the B.Ed. College for Womens run by the petitioners society forthwith.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.T.SRIKANTH REDDY

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 to 3: MR.P.SREE RAMULU NAIDU, Standing Counsel for Sri Venkateswara University

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

Sri Vidyodaya Educational Society filed the writ petition seeking a direction to respondents-1 and 2 to grant affiliation to the B. Ed., College for Women established by this Society. This Court while admitting writ petition on 26.2.2004 ordered notice on WPMP No.4662 of 2004, which is listed today.

When the WPMP is called, the learned Standing Counsel for Sri Venkateswara University brought to the notice of this Court that the application of the petitioner for affiliation was considered by the University and by Proceedings dated 4.3.2004 rejected the affiliation for the academic year 2003-'04, that assailing the Proceedings dated 4.3.2004, the petitioner herein filed a writ petition being WP No.4464 of 2004 and this Court disposed of the same directing the University to reconsider the matter for grant of temporary affiliation. It is also submitted by the learned Standing Counsel that thereafter the University granted affiliation on 15.6.2004 challenging which another writ petition being WP No.10955 of 2004 was filed in which there was an interim order, which was subsequently vacated by this Court. In that view of the matter, nothing survives in this writ petition. Though the Interlocutory application is listed, for the above reasons, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.
